We expect our dancers to arrive on time, ready for class, and to display courtesy to their parents, instructors, and classmates. Students are to always arrive ten minutes before class begins to warm up. Students are to be on their best behavior and always keep themselves clean and presentable. Rough language, disrespect, or unkindness of any sort will not be tolerated. Students, siblings, and parents are to respect the venue and are not to be outside designated areas. ABBA Dance is a Christian run organization, as such, music, stories, and other materials will be of Christian nature. Those attending ABBA Dance are to be courteous and respectful of Christianity and of the staff involved in the program. In the event of multiple offences of any form, ABBA Dance reserves all rights to remove students from the program. I understand that tuition is non refundable and I waive all rights to compensation for missed days and any other reasons. (more detailed code of conduct in the ABBA Dance Guidebook)
